

March 8, 2018 Behavior Support Agenda

9:00-4:00

Koury Center Greensboro NC

Time	What	Why	How/Materials
9:00	Introductions	To connect with each other and build community.	Small Group Discussion  Large group shout out  Who am I and how did I get here?
9:30	Intro to Restorative Practices	To define for participants what is meant by the term “restorative practices.”	Lecture
9:45	Social Discipline Window	The intent of restorative practices is to build community; understanding the quadrants of the social discipline window allows participants to identify their style and practice living more in the “with” quadrant.	Activity: Defining Practitioner Styles  Activity: Jump-In
10:45	Compass of Shame	Participants will see how the affect of shame helps us understand why human beings act or respond the way they do. This allows participants to change their reactions in response.	Activity: Spin the Compass
11:45	Lunch	Will be provided on site
1:00	Restorative Practices Continuum <input type="checkbox"/> Affective Statements (30 min) <input type="checkbox"/> Affective Questions (30 min) <input type="checkbox"/> Small Impromptu Conversations (10 min) <input type="checkbox"/> Circles (45 min) <input type="checkbox"/> Formal Conferencing (10 min)	If we believe that it is best to do things WITH people, use fair process, and work to strengthen relationships, the restorative practices becomes the avenue in which to do that. Here, participants will learn and use the practices on the continuum.	Activity: Affective statement article & Make it Affective  Activity: Restorative questions activity  Pair-share  SIC Video  Video: Circle Examples  Activity: Circle Planning
3:15	Evaluation of RP	Participants will receive suggestions around how to evaluate the effectiveness and change when implementing restorative practices.	Lecture
3:40	Closing <input type="checkbox"/> For more information <input type="checkbox"/> Takeaways <input type="checkbox"/> Evaluation	Participants will learn about who to contact for more information.	Sequential Circle: One thing you will take and apply today.

